

Felbridge Flyers RFC Privacy Policy

At the Felbridge Flyers Radio Flying Club hereafter referred to as “the Club”, we are committed to protecting and respecting your privacy.

This Policy explains when and why we collect personal information about people who join the club by whatever means, how we use it, the conditions under which we may disclose it to others and your rights in relation to your personal data.

By becoming a member of the Club, you’re agreeing to be bound by this Policy.

Any questions regarding this Policy and our privacy practices should be sent by email to felbridge.flyers@btconnect.com or by writing to Norman Carter, “Mertony”, Furze Field Road, Baldwins Hill, East Grinstead, West Sussex, RH19 2JN. Alternatively, you can telephone 07906 714746

When do we collect information about you?

We obtain information about you when you apply to become a member of the Club either online, via the telephone, or in person.

What type of information is collected about you?

The personal information we collect is;

1. Title, Name and Address and Telephone numbers
2. Occupation
3. Email address
4. BMFA number
5. Details of your involvement in Radio Control flying
6. Achievement Scheme rating

The legal basis for the processing of your personal data is to enable the club to fulfil our contractual obligations and provide membership services.

How is your information used?

We may use your information to:

- process your membership;
- to carry out our obligations arising from your membership;
- seek your views or comments on matters relating to the Club and model aircraft flying
- notify you of changes to our services;
- send you communications which you have requested and that may be of interest to you. These may include information about events and contests and other matters related to the Club. Also information from the BMFA that may be of interest.

Felbridge Flyers RFC Privacy Policy

How long do we retain your information?

We will hold your personal information on our systems for as long as is necessary to carry out our obligations in relation to your membership. If an individual's membership lapses the information will be securely kept unless that individual requests that it is deleted.

Who has access to your information?

The committee will have access to your personal data.

In addition as all full members of the Club must also be members of the BMFA, by joining the Club you give consent for your personal data to be shared with the BMFA to enable provision of BMFA membership services. Please see the BMFA privacy policy at <http://www.bmfa.org/privacy-policy>.

However, we will not sell or rent your information to third parties and we will not share your information with third parties for marketing purposes. The committee would only release your information to third parties beyond the Club if we are required to do so by law, for example, by a court order or for the purposes of prevention of fraud or other crime.

How you can access and update your information?

The accuracy of your information is important to us. You can check the information we hold is correct by contacting a member of the Club committee.

What are your rights?

- (a) the right to access;

You have the right to confirmation as to whether or not we process your personal data and, where we do, access to the personal data, together with certain additional information. That additional information includes details of the purposes of the processing, the categories of personal data concerned and the recipients of the personal data. Providing the rights and freedoms of others are not affected, we will supply to you a copy of your personal data. The first copy will be provided free of charge, but additional copies may be subject to a reasonable fee

Felbridge Flyers RFC Privacy Policy

- (b) the right to rectification;

You have the right to have any inaccurate personal data about you rectified and, taking into account the purposes of the processing, to have any incomplete personal data about you completed.

- (c) the right to erasure;

In some circumstances you have the right to the erasure of your personal data without undue delay. Those circumstances include: the personal data being no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which the data was collected or you are no longer a club member. Your personal data can be erased upon request to a committee member of the Club. Please note a request for data erasure for a current member would require that member to forfeit membership as the data is required for the club to fulfill its obligations.

- (d) the right to restrict processing;

In some circumstances you have the right to restrict the processing of your personal data. Those circumstances are: you contest the accuracy of the personal data; processing is unlawful but you oppose erasure; we no longer need the personal data for the purposes of our processing, but you require personal data for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims; and you have objected to processing, pending the verification of that objection. Where processing has been restricted on this basis, we may continue to store your personal data. However, we will only otherwise process it: with your consent; for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims; for the protection of the rights of another natural or legal person; or for reasons of important public interest.

- (e) the right to object to processing;

You have the right to object to our processing of your personal data for direct electronic communications purposes. If you make such an objection, we will cease to process your personal data for this purpose.

Felbridge Flyers RFC Privacy Policy

- (f) the right to data portability;

To the extent that the legal basis for our processing of your personal data is that the processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which you are party and such processing is carried out by automated means, you have the right to receive your personal data from us in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format. However, this right does not apply where it would adversely affect the rights and freedoms of others.

- (g) the right to complain to a supervisory authority;

If you consider that our processing of your personal information infringes data protection laws, you have a legal right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.

<https://ico.org.uk>

- (h) The right to withdraw consent.

To the extent that the legal basis for our processing of your personal information is consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time. Withdrawal will not affect the lawfulness of processing before the withdrawal.
